La dadada, la dadada

Well, Jackie's mama said that she would go to town
But her mama didn't know I'd be there too And she didn't know that far away world where we were bound
And the color of our love would turn to deep shades of blue.

Well, that greyhound took us to a place we never thought we'd make Where our crayoned colored green start coming through Oh, no dreams just weren't meant to come through while you're away
So Jackie fell asleep in the early morning dew.

Me and Jackie lived it up la dada do dey
But she didn't live to live it down
And neither would I if it's true what they say
'Cause her daddy says he's just too mean for me to be well
And he's gonna get me just as sure as la dadada.

Just as sure as heaven's up and hell is down Somewhere in between we tried to live
But there just ain't no hope for me with Jackie not around There's nothing left to receive and even less to give.

Me and Jackie lived it up la dada do dey
And neither would I if it's true what they say
'Cause her daddy says he's just too mean for me to be well
And he's gonna get me just as sure as la dadada.

And he's gonna get me just as sure as la dadada...
