

Justin Tubb"Sing Blue Eyed Elaine Again"

Visit "Sing Blue Eyed Elaine Again" on MotoLyrics.com

(Justin Tubb)

Daddy wrote Blue Eyed Elaine for my mama
And today it's still her very favorite song
It's the only one we ever sang together
So it means that much more to me now he's gone.

Cause he told me once to sing it for my mother
And sometimes I almost hear him joining in
When I stand out on the stage of the Opry
And sing Blue Eyed Elaine again.

Side by side we roll along and this memory lingers on
Yes, I know he's here beside me
Right where he's always been
When I sing Blue Eyed Elaine again.

--- Instrumental ---

It's a shame I didn't get to see more of him
But I chose to try and make it on my own
Though we never got to travel much together
And I miss those happy times we might have known.

But I know he's up there watching what I'm doing
I just hope he might have proved of what I've been Cause I try to keep a small part of him living
When I sing Blue Eyed Elaine again.

Side by side we roll along and this memory lingers on
Yes, I know he's here beside me
Right where he's always been
When I sing Blue Eyed Elaine again.

Yes, I know he's here beside me
Right where he's always been
When I sing Blue Eyed Elaine again...

