(Justin Tubb)

Well, I said I wouldn't told it against you
When you broke off this sweet love we had
Said I'm happy for you I hope you're happy too
Well, two out of three ain't bad.

And I swore I wouldn't sit around cryin'
Just because a good love went bad
Swore I'd find someone new swore I'd get over over
For two out of three ain't bad.

And believe it or now there's a new love
I guess I was lucky to find
She's tender and carin' and slowly
Loving you out of my mind.

Still the past sometimes haunts me a little
Yesterday was as blue as I've had
But today I'm all right and tomorrow looks bright
And two out of three ain't bad.

Oh, two out of three ain't bad...
