Disguise you're happy drive your will
Down design your backseat take
This pill now you're up in flames
And it's your world now try to be strong
Though i now you won't try at all
It won't be easy you can take down anyone
Love up in flames and it won't come down
Stop crying those tears it won't help
Anyway i'm buying your fears
Your short on love it's no use to beg
I can't hear you anyway stand up and
Fall you've been set up there's no
Easy way you're nothing at all inside
Of the truth you live no lives in Spite of the truth you spread more
Lies you're doubting the question
You won't back off i get it no shit
Don't do it dumb dog nail'em not a
Chance i lean forwards i fall backwards
I lean forwards time crawls backwards
Round and round and round it goes
Where it stops nobody knows you probably
Will stare though you say you can't see
Impossible pair it's fate they can't See how i love you till the end my
Love for you will never end
