Finally found the girl of my dreams
All along she had the locker next to me, yeah
I didn't know, I didn't have a clue
One day she looked at me and I just knew, yeah

I found a girl I could love (he could love)
A girl I could love for all time
Without a doubt, we're gonna be together
For now until forever

For four years I went to school
Day in day out it was such a bore, man
They told me what to do
One day she looked at me and I just knew, yeah

I found a girl I could love (he could love)
A girl I could love for all time
Without a doubt, we're gonna be together
For now until forever

Go

No more lonely nights
No more TGIF
I finally found a girl
To hang out with my friends

I found a girl I could love (he could love)
A girl I could love for all time
Without a doubt, we're gonna be together
For now until forever
