The things you say with a straight face
You wouldn't say two years ago
Your conscience fell into a well
With a rope tied around your neck
Down you go

Do you remember her name?
A broken heart won't justify the games you play
When it's all over, who's to blame?

The things you say to your best friends
Are just a copy of what's inside
When trust is a word on a page, nothing more than a passing phase
Friendships die

Do you remember the time
I picked you up and drove us out to the state line?
And said "We could leave this all behind"

When was the last time you said
"I wonder if this is all my fault?"
When was the last time you said
"I'm sorry"

When was the last time you said
"I wonder if this is all my fault?"
When was the last time you said
"I'm sorry"

The things you say with a straight face
You wouldn't say two years ago
Your conscience fell into a well
With a rope tied around your neck
Down you go

Do you remember her name?
A broken heart won't justify the games you play
When it's all over, who's to blame?

When was the last time you said

"I wonder if this is all my fault?"
When was the last time you said
"I'm sorry"

When was the last time you said
"I wonder if this is all my fault?"
When was the last time you said
"I'm sorry"

When was the last time you said
"I wonder if this is all my fault?"
When was the last time you said
"I'm sorry"

When was the last time you said
"I wonder if this is all my fault?"
When was the last time you said
"I'm sorry"

When was the last time?
When was the last time?
When was the last time?
When was the last time?
When was the last time?
When was the last time?
When was the last time?
When was the last time?
When was the last time?
When was the last time?
When was the last time?
When was the last time?
