Can you hear their words
Do this and don't do that
Get an education (fuck that)
And make a difference with your life

What's to be said about them?
Hypocrites left for dead
They told us what to do
That we've never been right in the head

So get up get smart and get out of town
We are generation right
No more prejudice, no more hate
We know what its gonna take
We know what its gonna take
To make this world turn right

So who's to say their right?
We've all got to fight the fight
They made this world a mess
And left us to make amends
