It's 3AM, you're on my mind again
Head out of town, i80 to you

In two short months I've told you everything
Feels like I met you almost ten years ago
Two separate entities but still the same
Only thing between us is miles of road

You're not so far away
You're not so far away
You're not so far away

Cause every time I think about you 90 thousand miles away
Time goes by so slow without you
It's been so long since yesterday

Well, I can't help but think about you
When I'm stuck here alone
Don't be surprised if I show up there
You're the kind of girl that I want for my own

You're not so far away
You're not so far away
You're not so far away

Cause every time I think about you 90 thousand miles
away
Time goes by so slow without you
It's been so long since yesterday

Cause every time I think about you 90 thousand miles
away
Time goes by so slow without you
It's been so long since yesterday
