Here's a few shorts words about
The girl I'm so stoked about
She's got this way of looking like she cares

So I convince myself I've got a chance
A make believe romance in my head

Why won't she make up with me?
Why won't she make out with me?
I don't know but I still care
She can close her eyes and know that I'm still there

She's more than just a crush
Cause I've been paralyzed for months
And she keeps on telling me things are the same

But every time I prove her wrong
Cause every song I hear sings out her name

Why won't she make up with me?
Why won't she make out with me?
I don't know but I still care
She can close her eyes and know that I'm still there

I still care
I still care about her
