I hate to break it to ya
I'm getting sick and tired of
All your bullshit and your expectations

I'm packing up this evening
Goodbye I'm finally leaving
Don't bother calling I'll be on vacation

I'm leaving you behind
And I've waited far too long
I'm leaving you behind

Well, I wont be there to see you cry
When you read this note explaining why
There is no use dragging this on
That's why I'm going (going)
I'm going going gone

I'm finally fed up with you
I've had it this time we're through how many times do I have to tell you?

It's said and done were over
Please don't try to come over
I'd rather swallow glass than have to see you

I'm leaving you behind
And I've waited far too long
I'm leaving you behind

Well, I wont be there to see you cry
When you read this note explaining why
There is no use dragging this on
That's why I'm going (going)
I'm going going gone

Don't have to wake up to your face anymore
Don't have to wake up to your face anymore
