"Adore You"

It's a mystery
That the maker of the universe
Calls me his own
It amazes me
That the one who lets me wander
Always leads me home
Now I
Have found me a place
In your heart
Where I
Forever will stay
I adore you
Adore you
No one in this whole world
I love more
I adore you
Adore you
No one in this whole world
I love more (no)
No one in this whole world
I love more
Deep inside of me
There's a holy sanctuary
A place full of dreams
There you speak to me
And I follow your sweet voice
To the refuge, of your peace
Now I
Will not be afraid of the darkness
Cause I
Will whisper you name
I adore you
Adore you
No one in this whole world
I love more
I adore you
Adore you
No one in this whole world
I love more (no)
No one in this whole world
I love more

There's a light that shines on my life
Comes straight from your heart
Down from above
These dreams that fill up my mind
They glide on your wings
They soar on your love
I adore you
Adore you
No one in this whole world
I love more
I adore you
Adore you
No one in this whole world
I love more (no)
No one in this whole world
I love more
I adore you
Adore you
No one in this whole world
I love more
I adore you
Adore you
No one in this whole world
No one, no one, no one, no one
No one in this whole world
