We're going no where fast On the tip of your lip I can see all the questions we wanna ask
Seeing you does not hurt No, not as much as we think it deserves

if i like it or not
it was over before it'd begun if you like it or not you plus me could never make one we're going no where faster on the tip of your lip I can see all the questions he won't ask her Standing before me now, I know you know it's true that often growing up means growing out of you

if i like it or not
