"Might"

I could stand here and offer my defense but it's not that clear, and it won't make perfect sense so I reach for objectives that were well within my sight I've got to stay selective and try with all my might yeah, with all my might

She had her reasons, of which I was forewarned now she is leavin' for what I've not become

You see I'm hardly perfect and you hurt as a surprise

So if I got drunk I could not remember the color of her eyes

(chorus)

So I won't testify
'cause you won't justify

You could ease my mind help me to unwind never ask me why well, I'm resolution shy

I could quit this anytime and tomorrow I might try
I don't have a fortune, 'cause I'm not fortunate All I have since I was grown are the junk that I collect

My weakness is my business, so go and mind your own

I might get along just fine without you

I might, you never know

(chorus)

Yeah (repeated 8 times)

(chorus)

Tomorrow I might

Tomorrow I might try...

Tomorrow I might try try try

Yeah, gotta show myself some respect, yeah

Tomorrow I might try

I won't testify

Tomorrow I might try

I won't testify

Tomorrow I might try..
