Songwriters: Rundgren, Todd;
Stick to your guns
Diamonds are a girl's best friend
Nobody knows the trouble this poor boy's seen
People will believe anything

Man on the run, always gets it in the end
Nobody cares 'cause nobody shares his dream
People don't believe anything

Everything is changed
Everything is still the same
It's just a part of the game

Blood on the moon
Patterns running across the floor
A musical inside a movie inside a dream
Guess you can believe anything

Everything is changed
Everything is still the same
It's all a part of the game

Mama, papa, boys, and girls
Holding hands around the world
Wrong is wrong and right is right

Nothing changes overnight

I'll believe it
When I see it in black and white
I'll believe
When I see in black and white

Tell me the truth
Nobody leaves here alive
In the black core of doubt
Trying to get out in the light
Sometimes you can't see anything

Everyone is changed
Everyone is still the same

They can't get out of the game

I'll believe it

When I see it in black and white

I'll believe it

When I see it in black and white

Black and white, black and white, black and white

I'll believe it

When I see it in black and white

Black and white, black and white

I'll believe it

When I see it in black and white
