I remember, I remember
What life was like in the yard
'Cause you can't ever think about dyin'
And it just makes a person get hard

I keep wonderin'
If my friends feel like I do
I don't know how someone could stand it
To go through what I'm now goin' through

So every night we party
And every night we get too high
And I put myself so close to death
'Til I think that I ain't gonna die

And I realize just a little
Why sometimes I like to feel like dirt
It's the only thing in this day and age
That can make me feel close to the earth

But if I ever get to heaven
If I ever reach that door
I will listen why I had to go through this life
Why they just couldn't take me before?

But everybody's going to heaven
'Cause already, we've all been through hell
Everybody's going to heaven
'Cause already, we've all been through hell

Laugh all night and cry all day
