I look at you and go mad
With thoughts of things that I'd do
If I had just one chance to show you
What this man really wants to do

When we're through, you would say
It's been done never that way
Now I know you can learn something new
Every day

And it feels so good if you don't think too much
Don't even try to be serious
Just let my hands take control
And give me all of your soul

You know I tried to run away but I can't hide
From the moment that's suspended deep inside
When you were mine
And now I need to feel it one more time

Won't you try to feel it?
Help me try to feel it

Feels so good when you lean into me
In the dark I can see
In my mind, I can feel what is reality
Why can't you see?

Things like this are meant to be
Yet somehow once again
You have thrown me aside
But always this feeling survives

Help me try one more time
Don't you know I tried?
