Once I woke up mild mannered and shy
Passed in the pub and I didn't know why
Made a sharp turn and I hooked a bee-line
For the tender minute mender
Bad news sender liquor vendor

After twice his normal dose
He thought he'd go make the most
In mid-stride of a vague adventure
Hangin' from a stranger's tenth floor balcony

It wasn't me
It must have been my evil
My evil twin
It wasn't me
It must have been
My evil
My evil twin

Push came to shove and the stranger
Decided she could fly
Saw you in a cornfield two days
Later with a scarecrow in old cobb

It wasn't me
It must have been my evil
My evil twin
It wasn't me
It must have been
My evil
My evil twin

And I'm not capable
Of that kind of sin
And I'm not capable
Of that kind of death wishin'

It wasn't me
It must have been my evil
My evil twin
It wasn't me

It must have been
My evil
My evil twin
