Old timer, Old timer

It's oo late to die young now

Old timer, five and dimer

Trying to find a way to age like wine somehow my new stuff is nothing like my old stuff was and either one is much when compared to a show which will not be as good as another one you saw... so hell me, i know, i know, i know

I am an old timer, old timer it's too late to die young now

trying to find a way to age like wine somehow

I meant every fool that ever signed their name up on these walls in the backs of these beer halls and concert halls.

I been threw seven managers, five labels, a thousand picks and patch cables, three bands, a band, a bunch of guitar stands, and cans, and cans, and cans of beer, a bottles of boozes and bags of pot, and a thousand other things that I forgot.

I thought that I be dead by now... but I'm not.
