Iron Mike's Main Man's Last Request...

Hey little buddy

Don't even worry

Everything is gonna be O.K.

I could have told you when you started making

Money that the world was going to treat you This way.

Forget your first wife, she was no good for You,

she was a gold-digging bitch and her mom Was too.

Hey, Iron Mike... don't let them get you down

Hey, little buddy

Don't look uneasy

You just keep your eyes fixed on this fight

If that mean 'old Don King

Don't give you back all of your money

I say you and I, we go and take it back some night.

Your still the champion and everybody knows you are.

Come on Iron Mike, let's take the Porsche to the titty-bar.

Come on champ! Come on champ!

All i'm asking for is 300 dollars and that's

Only til my brother straightens out

I would do this for you if I could and you

Needed me to... ain't that what friendships all about?

Hey, little buddy

Don't get angry

God please at least not a me

You know that i am right behind you

All the way, old 'compadre

You just say whatever you want to, and i'll Agree

Who washed every car in this 10 car garage?

Who carries the boombox and the entourage?

Me Mike, Goddammit... me!
