(Chorus) x2

[Tripp Locc]

Just came up and now its back to the homefront the niggaz that I'm with decide to take a short cut but that ain't me, bombed in and I'm trippin gimme my half comrades and I seek dippin cool, stay up is what I say as I slam the door Its mobbin time make sure I tuck the fo-fo hope to stroll dont take longer than expected being on these snake ass streets it can get hectic see some hoes makin that green jacked by the dope fiends doin bad with they eyes on beam prolly gonna do some devilish deeds for the next hit 24 hours for them they gotta stay lit bust a left through the alley stayin off the main street quiet as hell that I can hear my heartbeat

(Chorus) x2

4 Eyes 2 heads Which one could it be Its like this your mistaken I didn't do

[Wayniac]

Here comes a darkness now the clouds roll in, so why am I paranoid maybe because I'm too high I'm seein shit, thinkin shit like in a vision but can't pinpoint the real evil am I gettin close got the on post up, hold up for them hookers that be lookin like toe up from the floor up for rockin definites amounts to cock but still it dont change the reason why they wanna plot, but got the knot I make ya do what ya wanna do when ya wanna do unto others, as others do unto you is it a sin or a shame, who is to blame no one should ever have to feel the strain on the brain mo pain and grief, do I retreat to a deep sleep or listen to the voice as it speaks

(Chorus) x2

[Tripp Locc]

Almost out the alley headlights hit my face fuck its the po po got the strap so I'm break hit the gate, be smart and do no stupid shit thinkin like a G!! in this predicament I'm bonin across PCH and I'm safe the cut by the wall is open ghetto version late another day, another time perhaps but for now, I gotta be free to make my snaps whole lot of traps to dodge when you're broke and when you're large keepin it real the Black Panther charge I never let em hold me back wassup cool cat (wassup mane) I see my homey give him dap and tell him what fun I had with the one times plus my mission, he's mad cuz he missed it ain't no thang it was a job and adventure coulda got twisted tonight but I got wit ya

(Chorus) x7
