This one goes out to the kids who drove 6 hours in a stolen car, then missed the show.

This one goes out to never losing sight of all the

"how it's been" and "how it was."

Here's to just sinking the ship and not giving a shit.

Here's to sinking fast with everyone else.

This one goes out to another night with no sleep,

Crimpshrine records and

Gainesville streets

This one goes out to Mike,

Var, Mike and Tony,

All, Snuff, Jon, Terri,

Shaun, and Andre
