"Down Beat"

Yeah downbeat, downbeat comin' for you yeah everything's gone, you once knew downbeat, downbeat comin' Trying to rely on what things used to be and trying to live up, up, up, up to your responsibility everything's fucked up that you see and the downbeat's come for you, yeah, yeah, yeah and it's come for me Downbeat, downbeat comin' for you yeah everything's gone, you once knew
downbeat, downbeat comin' Trying to rely and downbeat's come and you can't hide standing on the front porch while downbeats collide and downbeats coming up, up it's got a grin and I'm left in this S-I-T-U-A-T-I-O-N Downbeat, downbeat comin' for you
yeah everything's gone, you once knew

downbeat, downbeat comin'

(x2)

Pickitup, pickitup-up

Yeah downbeat's gotta go and it goes and it goes and it goes and it goes

Downbeat, downbeat comin' for you

yeah everything's gone, you once knew

downbeat, downbeat comin'
