He's just like anyone

He's just like anybody

He's just like Frank

And I know it

And he knows it

It's his one sided point of view

I know it when he says it's

My way or the wrong way

And I don't care about you

But to see my side wouldn't be

The worst thing he could do

When someone's politics

Blinds you and binds you

To something you don't believe in

And he's just like anyone...

And I saw him walking on my way

Past Third St. just the other day

Why doesn't he understand views keep changing
