"Last Train"

Its got me on the run, its got my brain tied

Its got me down as the trains pass by

All these people crowding my sight

I wonder if my head was ever screwed on tight

Concrete buildings are all that I see

I used to never let it bother me

Last train remember me

Walking past the cracks on 2nd street, watching

Lights and sounds the city doesn't sleep, and I say

Get this fucking city out of my brain, so I

Guess I'll have to wait for the last train

Remember me...
