And I swear it's the last time,
And I swear it's my last try.
And we'll walk in circles around this whole block,
Walk on the cracks on the same old sidewalks.
And we'll talk about leaving town,
Yeah we'll talk about leaving.
I swear it's the last time,
And I swear it's my last try...
We rode across that bridge all night,
we talked our way through city lights.
Traced all the lines,
We're killing time,
Under those buzzing signs.
From downtown to anywhere but here,
Tonight, yeah, I swear,
To these rooftops,
And just hoped that car would never stop.
And I swear, it's the last time,
And I swear it's my last try.
And we'll walk in circles around this whole block,
Walk on the cracks on the same old sidewalks.

And we'll talk about leaving town,
And we'll talk about leaving.
I swear it's the last time,
And I swear it's my last try.
We drove around this place all night,
Past closed signs and familiar sights.
We're moving by, passing time,
Counting those center lines.
With 20,000 lines left to go,
And lead to somewhere, I don't know,
It might be the time, that we, leave this all behind.
And I swear, it's the last time,
And I swear it's my last try.
And we'll walk in circles around this whole block,
Walk on the cracks on the same old sidewalks.
And we'll talk about leaving town,
And we'll talk about leaving.
I swear it's the last time,
And I swear it's my last try.
And there's been a few times,
That we, we thought it felt right,
To take the westbound signs,
And just leave town tonight.
And I swear, it's the last time,
And I swear it's my last try.

And we'll walk in circles around this whole block,

Walk on the cracks on the same old sidewalks.

And we'll talk about leaving town,

And we'll talk about leaving.

I swear it's the last time,

And I swear it's my last try.

And I swear it's my last try.

And we'll talk about leaving town.

And we'll talk about leaving town.
