Consider this your final warning
I cant be blamed for what happens next
YouÂ'll see me different in the morning
And if we carry on this way
ThereÂ's no turning back

ItÂ's really not that difficult
ItÂ's easier to be alone
Than watch this strangle you
It tightens like a noose
This is the cross that I carry
With heart hanging heavy
Leave me now
Before this weight drags you down

All of this is bound to get real ugly
So think it through before you make your next move
Because given time youÂ'll grow to love me
First part your lips, then legs, then ribs
My demons thrust straight for your heart

ItÂ's really not that difficult
ItÂ's easier to be alone
Than watch this strangle you
It tightens like a noose
This is the cross that I carry
With heart hanging heavy
Leave me now before this weight drags you down

IÂ've been here before
Been pinned down to the floor
I never really could resist
The pressure of eager hips
But after one taste
ItÂ's your blood that IÂ'll crave
So squeeze this trigger donÂ't pull it
The nightmare stops with this bullet

ItÂ's really not that difficult
ItÂ's easier to be alone
Than watch this strangle you
It tightens like a noose

This is the cross that I carry
With heart hanging heavy
Leave me now before this weight drags you down

It's really not that difficult (before this weight drags you down)
It's really not that difficult (it tightens like a noose)

This is the cross that I carry
With heart hanging heavy
Leave me now
Before this weight drags you down
