Your spinning me around, won't get you anywhere.
Before you open up your mouth, you better be prepared (better be prepared) To live with, your decision to up and walk away (up and walk away)
Now can we talk about tomorrow when we can survive the day.

The way your body's moving, I can see that your trying to find a way
Outta this, but you keep on dancing around the right words
So I'll let myself take the lead. I'll tiptoe this isn't a _? _ covered
Floor, it's littered with eggshells, of broken pieces of what it was like before.
So I'll watch my step.

The floor is heating up, as we tango back and forth Your rolling eyes refuse, what your thighs cannot ignore I'll mention, quite attention, cause this dance could be our last
But here tonight I know tomorrow I'll be part of your past.

The way your body's moving, I can see that your trying
to find a way
Outta this, but you keep on dancing around the right
words
So I'll let myself take the lead. I'll tiptoe this isn't a _? _
Floor, it's littered with eggshells, of broken pieces of what it was like before.
So I'll watch my step.

So what do I gotta do, to c-c-change your mind
Baby tell me what I oughta do to c-c-change your mind
So what do I gotta do, to c-c-change your mind Oh baby baby tell me what I oughta do to change your mind tonight

The way your body's moving, I can see that your trying
to find a way
Outta this, but you keep on dancing around the right
words
So I'll let myself take the lead. I'll tiptoe this isn't a _? _
Floor, it's littered with eggshells, of broken pieces of what it was like before.
So I'll watch my step.
