ah.. ahha. o yea!
see this things,
that we do in our life
we need to expect for the unexpected

Chorus:

You should expect the unexpected

Your time is running out

When you think you getting over

That's not what life's about

You should expect the unexpected

Life just ain't no game

When you feel you've reached the top

It will bring you down in shame

Living life so high
Think you got it good
And every thing you want
Is going like it should

You never think about the things you've done to help you get there
Never think about the ones that love you and really care

Your treating life
Like it lasts
Like it last forever

Cause every good thing comes to an end
And everything you've done has a consequence

(Chorus)

Are you happy with decisions that you've made
Have you open up your heart and say its free to take Your being used, and mistreated and abused

Your treating life
Like it lasts
Like it last forever

Cause every good thing comes to an end
And everything you've done has a consequence

(Chorus)

Unexpected un un unexpected (x3)
When you feel you've reached the top
