There is a longing in the heart
There is a hunger in the soul
A thirst that can't be satisfied

And deep inside you know
You long for something that is much more
Than everything that's in your world

Life is a dream and heaven's reality
And I'm caught in between
I know it seems this world has everything
It's nothing more than a dream

'Cos life is a dream and heaven's reality
And if we just hold on
Then we will wake up to the face of God

Half of life's not even lived
There are parts we cannot see
But sometimes we catch a glimpse
As through a glass darkly

What should be, what life really could be
If heaven only could be now

Life is a dream and heaven's reality
And I'm caught in between
I know it seems this world has everything
It's nothing more than a dream

'Cos life is a dream and heaven's reality
And if we just hold on
Then we will wake up to the face of God

There's a need to know and to be known
There's an emptiness that's filled by God alone

Life is a dream and heaven's reality
And I'm caught in between
Life is a dream and heaven's reality
And if we just hold on
Then we will wake up to the face of God

I am dreamin', I am dreamin'
I am dreamin', I am dreamin'
I am dreamin', I am dreamin'
I am dreamin'
