Try to say
you love some one its hard to say you dont its hard to learn to try to trust someone, its hard to be without.

So if u think u love some one try, try, try
because that one maybe your one

So if you love her
think only of her
take the time tell her today

And if Without her everything is harder
take the time
drop everything
go tell her today

If for every king
you find a queen
the Key keeps them strong

oh if love is a that beats my heart then maybe
sweet baby
right now

oh
So if you think you love some one
try, try, try
because that one may be your one.
So if you love her,
think only of her,
take the time tell her today.

And when with out her,
everythings harder

take the time
drop everything
tell her today

[Chorus To fade]
