"Pleasurable Prison"

Infecting you, force my addiction to keep you confined Handing you a rope thats not enough to climb Waste your days, Ill put you in your place and you will find
Cash you in for something drunk enough to climb

Glass princess, you know youre young enough to shine
Kneel to me do what you have to survive
Worshiping, barely breathe to stay alive
Woe

Too young to die
Youre not too young to die
(Repeat)

A serpents kiss, a vein you might have missed and now you cry
Tragic mess, now that youve scored your test youre fucking high
Woe

Poison gifts I give to you are lies Junkie
Construct your prison thats been in mind
Victim
Altered death with your last breath unkind

Whoa
Woe
