Put the van tape on
Bay at the moon
Rub each other down so good
Forget about the tune that's playing

Joan went east
And she went west
I stayed right here in the middle
That's where I liked it best

The good times we had
Wouldn't worry about tomorrow
'Cause tonight was all we had, yeah

The good times we knew
I'd tell you about them baby
But you were there
You were with me, too

And it felt so good

Funny how you look back on all the times we had Remember all the good ones, forget about all the bad
Hanging out day after day in the hole in the wall
Things that seem to be so big then now somehow seems so small

The good times we had
Wouldn't worry about tomorrow
'Cause tonight was all we had, yeah

The good times we knew
I'd tell you about them baby
But you were there
You were with me, too

The heart is a hunter, the heart is a friend
Searching the shadows, searching till the end
I heard she married a guy from the valley
Not for the glory but because he was a friend

When the fire burn out and the waters run dry

The mountains have fallen, we'll remember those times
The seasons roll by and the youth slips away
The glory has faded, then what will we say?

The good times we had
Wouldn't worry about tomorrow
'Cause tonight was all we had, yeah

The good times we knew
I'd tell you about them baby
But you were there
You were with me, too

The good times we had
Wouldn't worry about tomorrow
'Cause tonight was all we had, yeah

The good times we knew
I'd tell you about them baby
But you were there
You were with me, too
