Look...up on the building, See a Silhouette
Crowd looks hungry, Because he ain't jumped yet.
Man up on the tower, Looks big up there
He's got something extra, I wonder if he's scared.

People do some strange things, When they're all together
They wouldn't even dream of, By themselves

Come on, come on, come on, Turn it on Turn it on, come on Power...power

Is he turning on us, Is he turning
You can't see his eyes now, Bet that they're burning.

Are we among them, There's strength in their numbers
Can't even hear us, There's to many others.
What's he keep saying, They're not even listening
Is he a poor man, Why don't we listen.

People do some strange things.....

It's invisible, You can't even touch it
If I was a wise man, I'd have spoke up

If I was a brave man, I'd surely said something
Now I can't even sleep on it, Cause it's all used up
All used up.
