I'm just hangin out...

I'm just hangin out...

I'm mainly known for the rough raps but kids steal my lyrics like hubcaps
And eat em like stacks of flapjacks like rugrats
HEY, and I get busy over unknown traps
While the next man flaps his lids like Parkay
I'm skilled in the field, so slide to the side
I make a rapper cry, cause I can get some shuteye
While he's havin hard times writin rhymes
So he gnaws on my metaphors and dines on my lines Which is the reason why I like to hang out and hustle with my friends, to get away from pens
And copiers, so I'm Corona bound
To check Drew, a.k.a. Dr. Butcher and what's goin down
And Joe with the Jetta, enables us to get around town
He's a clown
Other than that I'm with Joe, and Burgles
Watchin old Black Caesar flicks for kicks Jump in the Wagoner we're outta here without an idea where
But usually we wind up there
I go over K-Cut's block cause raw cuts is what he blends

Check it, and I like to hang out, and hustle with my friends...

Yo, I'm just hangin out... with my friends

I'm just hangin out...

And I be up in Mt. Vernon, piecein, with CL Smooth and Pete Rock
makin beats that's sharper than cleats
With my Griffy Grif from the Cafe Black pros
Checkin out videos
And I speak with my man Rob Leak on the problems of the weak dumb and meek my man's deep

Like the kid from the Bridge named the rapper Nas
Me and Che collect money in bars
And I run through discotheques like sound
Royal Rich is profound, yellin free James Brown We rush through, up to the discotheque and hustle up a storm in a swarm like we bought a farm Nobody can get with the whereabouts Cause we're out to shuffle they feet without a shadow of a doubt From Flushing to the streets of New York in fact Freshly dipped off the wack, but not to pan grack
In the apartment got plans for the night
Everything's right, takin it light Preparin for the best Tiffany's to be in
And everyday seems like a day from the weekend
The pool that never ends (Yo the science is the Powerhouse tonight baby Word I'm with that Always the Powerhouse
Nah but ain't nuthin at your house!
I like my house!)
And I like to hang out and hustle with my friends
