(L. Asp, Rice)

You know, girl, that you're mine
And you know that I'm yours too
Your mother says I'm a sinner
Your father says it too
But they two know you want me
Even knowing you know the truth
But you don't care, you're my babe
Just 'cos my sin is being with you

Chorus:

Let's Go

Come Here

Let's Go

Come Here

Let's Go

Come Here

Let's Go

Come Here

Honey, you're so sweet with that lingerie,
Far from daddy, far from home,
But your mother says that it's wrong
I do it so fine, her words are gone.

And I don't care 'bout your old brother,
And 'bout lawyers or cops too,
I don't care 'bout superstition,
If you're thirteen, it's good to you

Repeat Chorus

Why would I give up with you,
Only 'cos you're too young,
Ask your mother for some liberty
If she don't, then we run

Guitar Solo

Chorus fading to the End.
