I like the way you look when you don't know that I'm lookin' at you
And everywhere you look you're seein' somethin' or somebody new
I can see you startin' to smile but why I haven't a clue
I like the way you look when you don't know that I'm
lookin' at you

I like the way you look with a mischievous light in your eyes
I can see you thinkin' about something that'd be a surprise
The more you thinkin' it the harder it becomes to disguise
I like the way you look with a mischievous look in your
eyes

I like the way you look when you notice I've been lookin'
at you
When you catch me starin', when you're darin' me to get up and do When your eyes are laughin' when you know that I'm darin' you too
I like the way you look when you notice I've been lookin'

lookin' at you
Then everywhere you look you're seein' somethin' or somebody new
I can see you startin' to smile but why I haven't a clue
I like the way you look when you don't know that I'm
lookin' at you
I like the way you look when you don't know that I'm
lookin' at you
