I dreamed you,
I saw your face
Caught my lifeline
When drifting through space
I saw an angel...
I saw my fate
I can only thank God it was not too late

Over mountains,
I floated away
Cross an ocean,
I dreamed your name
I followed an angel
Down through the gates
I can only thank God it was not too late

Sing a little song of loneliness,
Sing one to make me smile
Another round for everyone,
I'm here for a little while

Now I'm walking
This street on my own
But she's with me
Everywhere I go
Yeah I found an angel
I found my place

I can only thank God it was not too late
I can only thank God it was not too late
I can only thank God it was not too late
