"Blue Sunday"

She took a rolled-up twenty out of her pocket
And paid for my cigarettes
We were friends at first sight in the 7-Eleven light
She said here let me cover it

And I rode shotgun all that night
She drove and never made a sound
When I asked if there was anything wrong
She said nothin' worth talking about

It's a blue Sunday
Down the interstate
It's a blue Sunday
Blue with shades of gray

Her back seat could have been a hotel
I slept for a thousand years
Every now and then she'd Laugh out loud for no reason

I pretended not to hear
And rolled my jacket up under my head
And stretched my body out, couldn't be too far in front
Of her daddy's bloodhounds but I ain't gonna worry
now

It was a blue Sunday
Down the interstate
A blue Sunday
Yeah, blue with shades of gray

Yeah, you know me
We've never met before
It's a blue Sunday
When it's time to leave you go
