Tom Petty And The Heartbreakers

Miscellaneous

Joe

My name's Joe I'm the CEO

Yeah I'm the man makes the big wheels roll

I'm the hand on the green light switch

You get to be famous I get to be rich

Go get me a kid with a good-lookin' face

Bring me a kid can remember his place

Some hungry poet son of a bitch

He gets to be famous I get to be rich

(Chorus)

Or bring me a girl

They're always the best

You put 'em on stage and you have 'em undress

Some angel whore who can learn a guitar lick

Hey now that's what I call music

Well they'll come lookin' for money when the public gets bored

But we'll fight 'em with lawyers they could never afford

Yeah I'll make her look like a spoiled little bitch

She gets to be famous I get to be rich

-Chorus-

So burnt-out Johnny thinks our books are shifty

What good's that alchi to me when he's fifty

We could move catalog if he'd only die quicker

Send my regards to the gig and a case of good liquor

He gets to be famous I get to be rich

He gets to be famous I get to be rich

My name's Joe I'm the CEO

I'm the man makes the big wheels roll
