It's gonna be another hard night
You wanna take it all alone
You wanna face up to the trouble
You wanna face up to your soul

And baby, you can have it anyway you want
You just get a little lost from time to time
Sometimes it gets a little crazy
Somewhere down inside

But you can still change your mind
You can change your feelings
You can change your mind

Everybody wants all the world can give
Everybody wants to get all they can get
Everybody's waiting on somethin'
That hasn't come yet

You can hide it for a little while, honey
You can try and just lose it for awhile
Then it's gonna do somethin' to ya
Somewhere down inside

But you can still change your mind
You can change your feelings
You can change your mind

Yeah and it gets harder by the minute girl
Oh, it gets harder every day
Listen to me, darlin', oh, you don't have to wait
It's alright

You can still change your mind
You can change your feelings
Just hold tight, everything's gonna be alright

Oh, you change your mind
You change your feeling
