Thank you
Well, I'm gonna accept that compliment of that great applause
On behalf of Clayton and myself
Well, I have been as you all know I write books
And I've written three books
And my latest book is a novel called The Laughin Men of Woodmont Coves
And it's just a great novel didn't it Ann
It's got punctuation and everything in it
And not only do I love to write I love to read
And I've been reading here of late I have been reading
Roy Clark's Big Note banjo book
Now I don't know if you all have one of these or not
But it teaches you how to play the banjo
And up until today this was the greatest five string banjo tune in the world
I love this tune it's written by the legendary Earl Scruggs a good friend of mine
And eh, if ya'll like this I'll send Roy his money for his book
