Well I wanna sing this song I wrote this song for my wife
I've been married to the same woman
I've been in love with the same woman for twenty years
And if my wife if finds out about it she'll kill me I'll tell you that

No that's an old joke
But Miss Dixie and I who many of you know Have been married well somewhere around twenty years something like that And on occasion I have been a bad boy to say the least That's nice of you you should have been there when I came in And it's very fortunate that a man could grow up and be successful in what he does
And marry a person with whom he is happy And I wrote this song for Miss Dixie and I'll sing it for her now
For all of you
