Intro to Song Six

Aww isn't that a good tune that takes you back awhile now
You have to have been around country music a long time to remember that one
Well I thank you all very much hey you're a great group I'm gonna tell you who the rest of the Storytellers are There's Drew Sexton on the piano Kenny Sordisdrum on the fiddle
Leon Watson on the bass Jimmy Mull on lead guitar And Terry Butram who is a distant relative of the legendary Pat Butram Who ran around with Gene Autry for years
And one of the young men here who has been with me Longer than any of the other Storytellers three days No a good friend of mine a good songwriter and a great musician
Mr. Ray Edwards Would ya'll give the Storytellers a little round of applause there

They're really a good bunch of boys and these gentlemen have been with me a long time
And just this year we've been to a lot of foreign countries
We've been to Australia New Zealand Japan Ireland
England New York
We've been in a lot of foreign countries this year
Well one of my favorite songwriters is my brother Hillman Hall
Who wrote Pass Me By for Johnny Rodriguez and a lot of good country and western songs
And when you get one of your favorite songwriters And another one of your favorite songwriters together and they write a song
You really kind of get attached to it And Hal Bynum one of the writers on eh what is that song about Four hungry children and a crop in the fields what is that song Lucille yeah that's the name of it Hal Bynum helped write Lucille And Brother Hillman and Hal Bynum got together and wrote this song Two really good songwriters and I'd like to do one of their tunes for you

This is a good one too it's called Please Don't Tell Ruby Where I'm At.
