Let's play remember, let's play remember
Remember the way that it's played

Remember the day that we went to the moon
We went to the moon in the middle of June
And as we blew over we met an old [Incomprehensible]
I know you remember that now

Let's play remember, let's play remember
Remember the way that it's played

Remember the time we were seven feet tall
We used to pick apples and play basket ball
Our beds were too short so we slept on the floor
And you bumped your head on the door

Let's play remember, let's play remember
Remember the way that it's played

Remember the time that we dressed up like clowns
Our smiles were real big and our noses were round
We didn't get hurt every time we fell down
I know you remember the clown

Remember the time we were both on TV
And every one said that they love you and me
We sang and we dance, and we played and we grim
And they told us they loved us again

Remember the time we were both millionaires
We didn't have worries, we didn't have cares
We fed all the hungry, the poor and the weak
Next day we were back on the street

Oh well, let's play remember, let's play remember
Remember the way that it's played
