

Tom T. Hall

"Pamela Brown"

Visit "Pamela Brown" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm the guy who didn't marry pretty Pamela Brown Educated, well-intentioned, good girl in our town
I wonder where I'd be today if she had loved me too Probably be driving kids to school

I guess I owe it all to Pamela Brown
All of my good times and all my roamin' around One of these days I might come ramblin' through your town
And I guess I owe it all to Pamela Brown

I've seen the lights of cities and I've been inside their doors
I've sailed to foreign countries and I've walked upon their shores
I guess the guy she married was the best part of my luck
She dug him 'cause he drove a pick-up truck

I guess I owe it all to Pamela Brown
All of my good times and all my roamin' around
One of these days I might come ramblin' through your
town
And I guess I owe it all to Pamela Brown

I don't have to tell you just how beautiful she was Everything it takes to get a country boy in love Lord, I hope she's happy 'cause she sure deserves to be Especially for what she did for me

I guess I owe it all to Pamela Brown
All of my good times and all my roamin' around
One of these days I might come ramblin' through your
town
And I guess I owe it all to Pamela Brown

Visit Tom T. Hall page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.