(Tom T. Hall)

God was right giving you the gift of love
You have used your gift of love so willingly
God was good giving you the hands to help
You've done well and I know he must be pleased.

We know you're lonely I don't know what I can do
We know you're unhappy you love everybody but you
God was right giving you the warming smile
You have warmed so many hearts unselfishly.

God was great giving you the settling touch
God is great God is good endlessly
We know you're unhappy I don't know what I can do
We know you're lonely you love everybody.

But you you love everybody but you...
