All the years since yesterday, my heart still Beats a rhythm in my breast from long ago
Only say the word, iÃ_I fly to be by your side DonÃg be leavin? me to dream., longin? to know

If this loveÃf to be, iÃ_I see it in your eyes
If there is love, iÃ_I still be needing/watching you
If thereÃf hope to dream, iÃ_I hear it in your sighs
If there is love, iÃ_I still be wanting you

On the streets and on the scene, every passerby (it seems)
Has your face, but disappears. . . through the pourin?
rain
And neon signs like omens shine, darin? me to dream
Of not-forgotten promises. . . iÃ_I never cry again

If this loveÃf to be, iÃ_I see it in your eyes
If there is love, iÃ_I still be needing/watching you
If thereÃf hope to dream, iÃ_I hear it in your sighs
If there is love, iÃ_I still be wanting you

Nevermind the tears and fears, you must believe You still look fine, like the best wine, time has been sweet
In your smile I still find my deepest friend
But, oh, if I can be your source of joy, iÃ_I be complete.

If this loveÃf to be, iÃ_I see it in your eyes
If there is love, iÃ_I still be needing/watching you
If thereÃf hope to dream, iÃ_I hear it in your sighs
If there is love, iÃ_I still be wanting you
