(Verlaine)

Janey's going back to Walker, says folks
There are happy bees. I said you remember Walker
You lookin for some misery? It's not their Tricks that I mind... it's just the way they say
"we" all the time.
That town's not a number, it's simply gone numb.
They'll finish you off there before you've begun.
Janey's going back to Walker. Papa says you're so corrupt.
Mama says you mind your pa. Brother Al he's lost his voice
And sister says she's just a claw.
Folks there in Walker they've got their fun.
They'll count you out there before you've begun.
Expecting exciting and new lights to be shining
On anyone who can find someone else there to blame,
Folks there in Walker are falling in love with their Shame. Janey's going back to Walker.
Says folks there are happy bees. I said
You remember Walker. It's not their tricks
That I mind. It's just the way they say "we"
All the time. O Janey who can you blame?
Folks there in Walker are falling in love
With their shame.
Janey's going back to Walker.
