You tonight, you comfort my lost and weary eyes
Don't turn away, stay by my side
We're so much closer now. Don't be afraid
Cause I'm afraid of hurting you
So don't ever doubt my love for you
The thought of you, hold on to me
Cause I won't let you go
Won't watch you walk away
So can die with me

Free the teardrop in your eye, let it find its way
Down your face, into my hand
There's so much on my mind, trying to escape
I want to speak, I want to say
What I see in you, but you'd never believe
How much you mean, you mean to me
I could die, and it wouldn't be so bad
Cause I'm with you
