It's me in the dark

I'm alone in the cold

I'm so depressed

In the corner

I feel afraid to die

I want you

The corner is red

Of my suicide

Now that I'm gone

I want you again

But I know it's not true

You have to go to join death, too

Die to love

Die to love

This is my requiem of yearning

[the girl:]

I will never miss you

Between you and me

There's only emptiness

Memories will remain

But they are left behind

My soul fades away
Into loneliness
Into the deep
What is left is my body
That never rests
My love never rests
Never rust in peace
Never
Never forget
Never
Never dream
Never
Never rest
Never
Never love
Never
